

BCSLA COMMUNITY SERVICE AWARDS NOMINATION FORM

The BCSLA Community Service Awards offers BCSLA Members a unique opportunity to recognize and honour our “best citizens.” Put your thinking caps on and give us your best advice.

Individual nominees should not be members of the BCSLA.

Five awards are offered, one from each of the following categories:

Q’PANGO AWARD: recognizing a Quasi-Public Agency or Non-Governmental Organization that has made major contributions to our local, provincial, or national landscapes through its advocacy – its policy, design-planning, or conservation initiatives.

PUBLIC SERVANT- PUBLIC AGENCY AWARD: thanking an individual who or an agency that has made major advances in the design, planning, and management of a place, has shown innovation in that work, and has shown respect for and consideration of the landscape architecture profession.

CONTRACTOR AWARD: presented to a contracting firm that, in the opinion of the profession, has done an outstanding job of bringing one or several important projects to completion or, has consistently demonstrated a high quality of professionalism, workmanship, and pride in their work.

CORPORATE AWARD: recognizing a corporation that has consistently provided a high-quality environment as part of its everyday activities. The corporation could be a developer, a major business, or even a small business that has done an outstanding job of integrating its business activities and facilities into the fabric of our city or countryside.

With respect to the selection process for the awards please note some of the following conditions:
